

Your doctor listens to your heart and lungs by placing a stethoscope on your chest.